

Lacy, McNeely Meet As Hounds Play Texas W.

Although almost 1500 miles separate the two leading college scorers in the country, they'll come together on the same floor on March 4 when Texas Wesleyan College, from deep in the heart of Fort Worth, comes to the Coliseum to battle Lefty Reitz's Evergreen five in a game that has all the earmarks of a natural.

The two lads who will have all the attention will be the Hounds' Jim Lacy and Cliff McNeely of the visiting quint. The pair has paced collegiate scoring all winter, and their meeting may make the outcome of the game a sidelight.

Boasts Fine Record

The Texas squad comes East with a most impressive record. At this writing, the Southern team has won 22 of 24 contests, registering an average of well over 70 points per game.

Another attraction will be Bill Barnham of the Texas team, who ranks third in the nation in total points. With him and McNeely setting the pace, Loyola will most likely have a busy evening before them.

Look To Lacy, O'Donnell

Nevertheless, the Hounds will look to Lacy and Andy O'Donnell to spark the attack.

Reserved seat tickets are priced at three dollars, and general admission seats will cost one dollar and eighty cents.

Tickets will go on sale Monday and will be available at the athletic office, Triangle Sporting Goods Store and the Schreiber-Jones Sporting Goods Store. Reserved tickets will not be held after Monday and Tuesday, but will go to the first applicants.

Yearbook Plans Defined; Profits Go To Chapel

Patron fees and subscriptions for the 1947 Evergreen are still trickling into the yearbook office but more than 100 copies of the planned printing of 250 yearbooks have not yet been purchased.

Some copy has already been sent to Thomsen-Ellis-Hutton, yearbook printers, and the staff hopes that the majority of the editorial work will be completed before the end of the month.

The Seniors will dedicate this year's edition of the Evergreen to the Rev. Joseph A. d'Ingvilliers, S.J., Dean of Studies from December, 1942, to January, 1946. Fr. d'Ingvilliers is now Professor of Theology and Philosophy here.

"Some comment has been made about the price of $7.50 which we are asking for the yearbook," said Editor Peter Malloy, "and I think it only fair to indicate the reasons for such an increase in price.

"At the minimum, the total cost of the yearbook will be $2800. In the event that all 250 copies are purchased at $7.50 apiece, we will defray all but $925 of our expenses. This remainder must be taken care of by income from advertising and patrons fees.

"In the event that we are able to make any profit from the yearbook,

Monday Student Holiday Announced By Fr. Bunn

Monday, February 24, is an official school holiday. It was awarded by the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S.J., President of Loyola College at the Quarterly Assembly held on Tuesday, February 4.

In announcing the holiday, Father Bunn said it was to serve as a reward for the basketball team's victory over previously undefeated Seton Hall College and as a means of showing his gratitude for the response of the student body to the recent emerald ring drawing for the benefit of the Chapel Fund.

Classes will be resumed on Tuesday, February 25. The Evening School of Adult Education will have classes as usual Monday.

Material Sought For Quarterly

Plans are currently being formulated for the revival of the Evergreen Quarterly, a literary magazine published seasonally by and for the students of Loyola College. The Quarterly was first begun in the Spring of 1941, with Thomas J. Thaler, '42 as Editor-in-Chief. At that time there were only 400 students in the school. The magazine, however, was forced to cease operations early in 1943 due to the rapid disintegration of the College's enrollment.

Plans are still in a primitive stage, but if the project materializes, Mr. John G. Herzer, professor of English, will be the Moderator, and its policy the same as outlined in a former issue of the Evergreen Quarterly: "It throws open its pages most gladly to contributions from all the students of the college whether they have a reputation as a writer or not . . ."

Mr. Herzer stated, "We are open for anything; articles, stories or poems."

Peter J. Malloy

that money will be turned over to the Memorial Chapel Fund in the name of every patron and subscriber to the yearbook. At best, the Senior Class will break even."

As announced, the yearbook will celebrate the twenty-fifth year of Loyola College at Evergreen. Photographs of the early appearance of the college and the ceremonies marking the erection of the buildings on the campus will be used if possible.

Rev. David Nugent, S.J. Appointed Provincial

A former member of the faculty of Loyola College, the Very Rev. David Nugent, S.J., has been appointed the new Provincial of the Society of Jesus for the Maryland Province.

Father Nugent, who until two weeks ago served as Minister at Loyola College, succeeds the Very Rev. Vincent L. Keelan, S.J., who has been appointed to Georgetown Prep at Garrett Park, Maryland.

Gave Many Lectures

Father Nugent is well known throughout the Archdiocese of Baltimore and Washington. He has lectured before the students of Mount St. Agnes and Notre Dame of Maryland as well as the nurses of Mercy Hospital in Baltimore.

Although a native of Connecticut, Father Nugent has spent many years in Baltimore. He attended Gonzaga High School in Washington and entered the Novitiate of St. Andrew-on-the-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, New York.

Following his ordination, he did special studies at the Gregorian University in Rome.

Former Woodstock Rector

He is a former President of Woodstock College, the Jesuit Theologate and Philosophate in Maryland. In addition to serving as minister of Loyola College, he taught at Canisius College in Buffalo, Fordham University and Brooklyn Preparatory School.

Very Rev. David Nugent, S. J.

The headquarters of the new Provincial are located at St. Ignatius Rectory, Calvert and Monument Streets, Baltimore.

Enrollment Up In Night School; New Teachers, Courses Added

Steadily mounting enrollment and four new courses for the Evening School of Adult Education were announced this week by the Rev. John E. Wise, S.J., Dean of the Evening School.

Students now attending the after-dark sessions number 390, including 74 regular day students. They take a total of 861 credit hours.

Forty-Two Courses Offered

The four course additions balance off four discontinued subjects in order to maintain the total number of courses offered at 42. New listings include Theory of Accounts and Business Management, both of which will be taught by Mr. Dyer; Corporation Finance, Mr. Sweitzer; and Radio Broadcasting, Mr. Rock. They replace Cost Accounting, Executive Accounting, Theology of the Redemption and Business Writing, all of which have been discontinued.

In five of the courses, the increased enrollment has made necessary a split in classes. Mr. Driscoll's Voice Culture, Mr. Miller's Constructive Accounting, and Mr. Dyer's Business Management have been divided into two sections, while Business Law, Mr. Burch; and Economic Problems, Mr. Stevens, have overflowed into three classes.

New Faculty Listed

Mr. Stevens is the second addition to the teaching staff. From the University of Virginia, he holds A.B., M.A., C.P.A., and LL.B. degrees. He is assistant to the president of the Federal Land Bank.

Other faculty newcomers include Mr. Kreyche, Educational Philosophy, and Mr. Gehring, Business Law.

Evening School classes begin at 6:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 9:00 a.m. on Saturday. Classes are fifty minutes in length.

Spring Lecture Series Planned During March

Continuing its policy of offering a Fall and Spring Lectures Series, Loyola plans a combination of classical and current topics for this year's Spring Lectures.

The first three lectures which begin on Sunday, March 9, at 4 p.m., and continue on succeeding Sundays until March 23, will cover the "Great Books of Early Christian Centuries." The final lecture to be held on March 30 will be on the timely and important subject of Spain.

Lecture By Father Walsh

The opening lecture will be given by Rev. Gerald Walsh, S.J., editor of Thought, the Fordham University Quarterly. Father Walsh appeared here last year with talks on "Dante."

"Apostolic Fathers" will be the title of his discourse this year and will be an account of the works of St. Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch, and St. Clement of Rome. St. Clement is connected with the famous epistle to the Corinthians.

St. Jerome Is Second Topic

The choice of "St. Jerome" as the second topic was announced by Dr. Martin McGuire. St. Jerome will be long remembered for his vulgate edition of the Bible. However, Dr. McGuire will speak on the more restricted topic of St. Jerome as an historian, because of his additional investigation on that subject.

Dr. McGuire is well known throughout the country as an educator. (Continued on page 3, col. 1)

ASN Alumni Nominate Four

The Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club of Baltimore announced today the nomination of four Alumni of the Class of 1941 as graduate members of the National Jesuit Honor Fraternity. The men selected were Carl F. Gottschalk, John B. Farrell, Joseph V. Connor and Noah Walker.

Selection of these members, George J. Miller, Jr., president of the club explained, represents a greater honor than that involved in student nominations. The requirements of scholarship, loyalty and service are the same, except that these men are judged by their activities, not only during student days, but also from their graduation until the present time.

The Alumni Club has the prerogative of selecting four men from each of the five classes prior to the one in which the student ASN chapter was inaugurated and, if their choice is approved by the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S.J., President of the College, of having these men accepted by the National Fraternity.

It is the intention of the Alumni Club to select the outstanding men from these classes for admission to the Fraternity and then to offer them the opportunity of joining the Club. Three of the four men chosen from the 1941 class have already expressed their intention of becoming members of the ASN.

Dr. Freimuth Divides Time Between Loyola, Morgue

by Francis X. Gallagher

"Drop down to the morgue someday and I'll show you around" is the blanket invitation extended to the members of the Freshman Inorganic Chemistry Class by Dr. Henry C. Freimuth. No, Dr. Freimuth is not the new master of ceremonies for the Inner Sanctum program but he is, in addition to being an instructor here at Loyola, the Toxicologist for the State of Maryland.

A five and one-half year career in the Federal Bureau of Investigation furnishes him with invaluable experience in his work which deals with the science of poison. Chemistry lectures are enlivened frequently with injections of crime research discussions and of how Chemistry has aided the Doctor in solving some particular case.

A Perfect Proctor

Needless to say, Doctor Freimuth's training asserts itself often in the classroom. In the opinion of most of the students, the class which he proctored during the mid-year examinations was the quietest non-stirring aggregation ever gathered together for a two hour period of time.

Teaching is no new assignment for the Doctor who began to practice the art of pedagogy after his graduation from New York University where he received his M. A. and Doctor of Philosophy in Analytical Chemistry degrees.

Stresses Significant Figures

A mild mannered but thoroughly precise individual, Dr. Freimuth insists that his students must be well versed in the skills of manipulating significant figures. They are by no means the first to hear him propound his theory, since he has lectured to nearly five thousand members of police organizations and Special Agents of the F. B. I.

Despite the fact that he was with the F. B. I. only five and one half years, Dr. Freimuth's work sent him to forty-six of the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia. Although he was assigned to Washington, he testified in the courts of most of the major cities throughout the United States.

No Foreign-Directed Sabotage

As far as the F. B. I. could determine, there was not a single case of sabotage directed by foreign powers, Dr. Freimuth asserted. However, there were some misguided persons who committed acts of sabotage because of personal grievances or admiration for foreign ideals or leaders. It was with these saboteurs that a large portion of his work was concerned during the war.

Dr. Henry C. Freimuth

Most Interesting Case

Theft of a large shipment of whiskey provided the Doctor with one of his most interesting assignments. The robbery took place in Louisville, Kentucky, but the whiskey was recovered in Memphis, Tenn. Although the labels had been removed from the bottles in order to prevent identification, laboratory treatment of a small fragment of paper which was found on one of the bottles proved that the fragment was a piece of a Tennessee Liquor Tax Stamp. Further research showed that the same whiskey was a part of the stolen dump from which the stolen whiskey had been made.

In addition to his duties as State Toxicologist, Dr. Freimuth is an associate instructor at the Maryland State Police School and the Baltimore Police School.

Born In New York

Born in 1912 in New York City, Dr. Freimuth attended City College of New York and New York University. He was engaged in research work and also studied medicine at N. Y. U.

"I attribute all my success to the fact that I was never late and never missed a day of school," said the Doctor with a smile at the beginning of the interview.

Many of the students have taken advantage of his invitation to attend an autopsy at the morgue. Admission is free of charge and there is no Federal or State tax.

Vets Club Sets Date For Party

The Veterans Club has announced completion of plans for its Freshman stag party. It will be held Sunday, February 23, from 2:00 p. m. until 5:30 p. m. in the Oak Room. According to Jack Sweeney, club president, all veterans in the school are welcome. However, the affair is especially intended for the veteran members of the January Freshman Class.

The purpose of the party will be to initiate the new students into the social and extra-curricular activities of the school. In accordance with the policy of the Student Council, officers of the Club hope to formulate interest in all of the school's organizations and primarily in the Veterans Club.

Meanwhile, the Club is going on with its plans for a large scale organization to embrace all collegiate veteran clubs in Maryland.

Books

by Gus A. Crenson

The books which are summarized in this article have been received recently by the Loyola College Library.

Lydia Bailey—Kenneth Roberts

One of our best historical novelists turns again to the period with which he is most conversant, the early nineteenth century. Mr. Roberts' book deservedly merits its first place on the best-seller list.

After Hitler, Stalin?—

Robert Ingram

Mr. Ingram takes the position that Communism is an evil brew of nationalism and socialism having its genesis in the murky pot of the French Revolution. His thesis is very interestingly developed.

Silent Is the Vistula—Irene Orska

Mrs. Orska gives us a day by day account of the abortive Warsaw revolt against the Germans. Told on personal terms, her story adds reality to the splashy headlines of two years ago.

One Who Survived—

Alexander Barmine

This book is subtitled "The Life of a Russian Under the Soviets." That sums up the story. It is better than most of its type because Mr. Barmine held a responsible position in Soviet Russia and is in a position to give us a more panoramic view than other authors have done.

Seeing Things—

John Mason Brown

This book is an interesting series of essays on the theatre, personalities and life in general. Mr. Brown is a poor critic because he finds it so hard to attack anyone, but his warm humor makes for attractive light reading.

ALUMNI DOINGS

By Edward A. Doehler, '30

ALUMNI BANQUET

Those who missed the Alumni Banquet on February 1 will never quite know what they missed. One just had to be present to appreciate the sparkling wit of the toastmaster Edward W. Stevenson, '39, the impressiveness of the record of Loyola's physicians as told by Lt. (j. g) Frank J. Ayd, J. (M. C.) USNR, and the eloquence of the distinguished guest speaker, The Honorable Judge Clare G. Fenerty.

The Banquet Chairman, George J. Miller, Jr., '43, and the members of his Committee are in line for congratulation on what was not only the largest but also, on the testimony of veterans of many Loyola Banquets, perhaps the best banquet in Loyola history.

In keeping with a policy of the Executive Committee, the Banquet was planned as the first in a series of tributes to the members of the Association in various business and professional fields. This year the Banquet was in honor of the Loyola Physicians. Outstanding men from the various fields of medicine were among those at the head table. The work of the Loyola physicians, as outlined by Lt. Ayd, '42, proved to be remarkable. Nineteen Loyola men are on the faculty of the University of Maryland School of Medicine, and four on the faculty of The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. Loyola Physicians are found among the members of every important medical organization in the country and many hold important offices. Fifteen Loyola graduates are Diplomates of the American Specialty Boards. Over five hundred articles written by Loyola men have appeared in leading medical journals and four of our men have served on the editorial staff of these publications. One Alumnus is the author of three textbooks and another is Director of the important Passan Foundation for Medical Research.

It was quite fitting to dedicate our Banquet to these men and the upwards of one hundred and fifty Loyola men working in the entire field of Medicine. The practice is to be continued with each Annual Banquet dedicated in turn to another professional or business group within the Association.

One cannot write about the Banquet without a real tribute to "Ned" Stevenson. Ned kept his audience in the best of spirits throughout the evening and handled his guests and speakers well, even though he did have to use a Colt as a "persuader."

ALUMNI NOTES

In recent weeks the following Alumni Information was received at the Office. The more items you send, the more we will print.

John G. Brickner III, ex '44, a Senior Medical Student at the University of Maryland, was married in Baltimore on December 21, 1946, to Miss Kathleen Mary Morrell of Richmond, Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Matricciani, '38, announced the birth of their son, Albert Jr., on January 20, 1947. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Loden, '39, also announce the arrival of their son, Daniel John, on January 30, 1947. The latest birth announcement comes from Mr. and Mrs. F. Joseph McDonald, ex '47, whose son, Richard Karl, was born on February 11, 1947.

George J. Miller, Jr., '43, Chairman of the successful Alumni Banquet, was also successful in passing the recent C. P. A. examinations. Joseph J. Loden, '30, has advised us of his present connection with the Fireman's Fund Indemnity Company of Portland, Oregon.

ASK YOUR GROCER

for

Maryland Chief

Tomatoes

Peas

Spinach

Beets

Carrots

French Style

Stringless Beans

Packed by

J. LANGRALL & BRO., Inc., Balto., Md.

Roofing
Sheet Metal - Home Insulation
EDW. G. FICK & CO.
2008-10 Harford Ave.
University 6620

THE EAGER HOUSE
COCKTAIL LOUNGE
RESTAURANT
15 W. Eager St.

PEROUTKA'S AUTO SERVICE
3200 E. FAYETTE ST.
Baltimore-24, Md.

Baltimore Fumigators
TERMITE CONTROL
3718 Yosemite Ave.
Liberty 7070

VIDALI'S BAKERY
For Quality Goods
4627 York Road
1221 W. North Ave.

Payne & Merrill

Outfitters for Men and Boys
315 NORTH CHARLES STREET
BALTIMORE ... MARYLAND

MIKE WISE
156 N. East Ave.
Baltimore, Md.

MUNDER'S
GOOD FOOD & FINE DRINKS
4536 Harford Rd.

C. E. KIMMEL & CO.
217 E. Mt. Royal Ave.
Distributors — U. S. Tires

SEIDEL & COMPANY
FOOD BROKERS
Old Town National Bank Bldg.
Baltimore - 2, Md.

Howard G. Glass Co.
WESTINGHOUSE DEALER
Electrical Home Appliances
5404 York Rd. HO. 1143

We Telegraph Flowers
FRED C. BAUER
Florist and Nurserymen
181-187 Gittings Ave.,
Baltimore, Md.

Meet The Faculty

Mr. Walter S. Dawkins, instructor in mathematics, hails from Polytechnic Institute and Johns Hopkins. His original ambition was to be an industrial chemist, but after a single year in industry he turned to teaching.

This career took him to Johns Hopkins, several Baltimore public high schools, including his old Alma Mater, a radio school in Washington, D. C., and finally to Loyola College.

Though he doesn't play sports, he enjoys watching a good basketball game. Movies, radio, concerts, and an occasional game of chess are his chief leisure activities.

Mr. Dawkins is unmarried and "a little over forty." His hobby is research in mathematical physics.

* * *

Mr. John B. Higinbotham, also an instructor in mathematics, is an alumnus of both Loyola High and the College. Travelling is his chief hobby, and he joined the Marines upon finishing college, serving his hitch in Panama and South America. After four years in the Marines, he joined the Army and then the Merchant Marine. In World War II the Army gave him free passages to Sicily, Italy and France. Mr. Higinbotham also collects coins from his various ports of call.

He hopes to go overseas to work sometime in the future. This time he is looking westward, possibly to the Orient.

Spring Lecturers . . .

(Continued from page 1, col. 5)

ator and classical literature student. He has been a member of several national educational committees including one appointed by President Truman.

Work Of St. Augustine

The final speaker on the early writers will be Rev. J. Courtney Murray, S. J. Fr. Murray has chosen the topic "St. Augustine" for his lecture. St. Augustine has been immortalized by his two works, "Confessions" and "City of God." As in the case of the preceding lecturers Fr. Murray will choose some restricted field from among St. Augustine's voluminous work for his talk.

Fr. Murray is the editor of Theological Studies which has long been considered one of the most learned reviews in the entire theological field.

Lecture On Spain

The final lecture on the series will be a talk on the Spanish question by Dr. Ross Hoffman. Dr. Hoffman undoubtedly is the best informed man in America on the Spanish situation, and has traveled extensively through Spain. He was a recent visitor to the Victoria Association when it celebrated the centenary of its Dominican founder.

Sodality Union Meets Sunday

A full financial report on "Cupid's Cotillion," a dance sponsored by the Sodality Union of Baltimore at the Maryland Yacht Club on February 14, will be the first order of business at the monthly meeting of the group. Departing from the usual custom, the next meeting will convene at one of the local Catholic colleges on Thursday, February 27.

Special committees are now at work on recommendations which are to be made to the general assembly for possible revisions in the Constitution. The feasibility of having a general Mass and Communion Breakfast for all members of the Sodality Union will also be discussed.

Libby Von Rinteln of Notre Dame College is in charge of the Mass and Communion Breakfast.

Fifty Placed On Dean's List

Fifty students were placed on the Dean's List of distinguished students for having obtained an average of 85% or over in all subjects during the Second Quarter which ended January 17, 1947. The Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S. J., Dean of Studies, announced the names of these students at a general assembly on Tuesday, February 4.

September Freshmen, BS 1, led the College with a class average of 81.5%. The average for the entire school was 79.75%. The Dean's List was comprised of the following students:

Seniors: Eugene H. Bacon, David J. Buchness, William W. Cahill, Jerry M. Cohen, Mannes F. Greenberg, Edwin F. Hawkins, Peter J. Molloy, Charles H. McBeth, George A. Mentis, William H. Shea, James C. Sweeney, Henry F. Zerhusen, Joseph G. Elbert, Bernard A. Saltyiak.

Juniors: Edward O. Cole, Aloysius C. Galvin, Robert M. Gamson, John M. Krager, Francis X. Kunkel, Leonard M. Lister, Frank E. Rodgers, William J. Schanberger.

Sophomore: Richard E. Rebbert. May Freshmen: John M. Crenson, Christian S. Knudsen.

September Freshmen: (AB) Joseph H. Baurenfeind, John F. Comes, Donald E. Fay, Francis X. Gallagher, Edward F. Shea. (PhB) Niles E. Fields, Edward L. Hiller, Charles R. O'Hara. (BS 1) Robert E. Biggs, James E. Bowen, Bernard J. Byrnes, Victor W. Fuentealba, John R. Hook, Francis G. McFarland, Arthur E. Roden, Irvin B. Shaffer. (BS II) John J. Curry, William D. Faughnan, James L. Fisher, Robert L. Nichols, Lawrence P. Smith.

Special Students: James H. Cook, Francis M. Dugan, Anthony L. Horka, Thomas E. Kaiser.

Baby Photograph Contest

Golden opportunity for an outlet of fatherly pride in offspring came today with the announcement of a Baby Photograph contest, sponsored by THE GREYHOUND.

Married members of the student body who are fathers are invited to submit pictures of their children to any member of the Editorial Staff of the student publication. Deadline for all entries is March 15. The April GREYHOUND will carry a montage of all photographs submitted.

Two prizes will be awarded for the two photographs which, in the opinion of the judges, show the two most attractive entrants to the best advantage. Prime consideration, however, will be given not to photographic art, but to the child itself.

Entrants are requested to submit glossy photographs, at least two by two and one-half inches in length, enclosed in an envelope with the baby's age, and the names of the parents printed on the back of the picture.

Infants entered must be three years old or less on the deadline date of the contest. A board of three judges, who will consider the entries, will be announced at a later date.

All photographs will be returned to the entrants.

We See By The Papers

Beta Gamma To Debate Women
The Villanovan, Villanova College
We'll take the affirmative on that issue.

* * *

Students: We Want Sports Here
The Baloo, University of Baltimore
So you goody-goodies can just enroll someplace else.

* * *

Supper Club Apologizes
The Varsity News, University of Detroit
That's okay; even the best cooks slip sometimes.

* * *

Commerce Club Hears Mr. Prong At Breakfast
The Griffin, Canisius College
Please, Mr. Prong, what would Emily Post say?

* * *

Debaters Face Loyola University Of Baltimore
The Hoya, Georgetown University
We may be overcrowded, but . . .

* * *

Lecture Forum Presents Governor Arnall On Timely Topic
The Springhillian, Spring Hill College
Like who's governor of Georgia, for instance?

* * *

Femenine Horde Invades Aquinas
The Cowl, Providence College
A few raids by Funk & Wagnall wouldn't hurt either.

ALBERT GUNTHER, INC.
36 W. Biddle St., Baltimore, Md.
Hardware — Contractors Supplies
Industrial & Mill Supplies
Contract Builder — Hardware
Telephone VE. 7437-7438

GRAUEL'S MARKET
Everything in Fine Food
Three Convenient Locations
5113 & 4032 Roland Ave.
6242 Bellona Ave.

GOING TO HAVE A PARTY?
You'll find delicious Foods and tasty Snacks for supper parties, stags and midnight lunches—in the

Pantry Shop
- at -

HUTZLER BROTHERS CO.

Staff Meets At Social

Greyhound Staff members will attend an informal social at Evergreen this evening at 7:45 p. m. in the Acorn Room. This event is a part of the new staff's policy of scheduling a social event after every issue of THE GREYHOUND.

Before the social evening begins, there will be a short business meeting at which today's issue of THE GREYHOUND will be discussed in the light of difficulties encountered in producing it. The meeting will take place in the form of a round table conference and suggestions and improvements will be discussed.

It was found necessary to adopt this plan because of the fact that it is impossible to have a general staff meeting during the day since class schedules conflict.

Calvert Kenning and James Brady will handle the financial details of these affairs since they are members of the Greyhound business committee. The dances will be drag and will be held in the Acorn Room of the Library Building.

Rogers Grocery
509 York Road
Towson, Maryland
Phone—Towson 333
WE DELIVER

Waldorf Dress Suit Co.
Men's Formal Wear
108 W. Baltimore St.
Calvert 5344

Phone South 0864
Louis J. Heying
BAKERY
William and West Sts.

Give A Gift
With a School or Lodge Seal
The
John Trockenbrot Co.
Designers of
School, College, Club, Lodge
Rings and Pins
BANQUET FAVORS, TROPHIES
310 North Paca Street
VERnon 1052
Gifts with
Loyola College Seals

Bellarmino Club Debates St. Joe Tonight At 8:00

For its first intercollegiate debate of the 1947 season, Loyola's Bellarmine Debating Society will engage a team from St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia. The contest will be held in the Library at 8 p. m. this evening.

The visitors will uphold the negative of the National Collegiate Debating Topic. Frank Gallagher and Dudley Shoemaker will speak for the affirmative of "Resolved that labor should be given a direct share in the management of industry."

Four Contests Scheduled

Challenges have been sent to ten other colleges and universities. So far contests have been scheduled on a home and away basis with four of the colleges challenged.

The Society staged an exhibition debate for the members of the Holy Name Society of Blessed Sacrament parish on February 6. George Alderman and Francis Rackensperger contested for the affirmative and were opposed by Donald Fay and Edward Shea. The negative won.

Debate Georgetown

Fay and Shea will again defend the negative of the national topic against representatives of Georgetown's Gaston Debating Society, at Georgetown on March 7.

Arrangements are being made by Francis Janowiak for an exhibition contest to be given for members of the Holy Name Society of Sacred Heart Parish. No definite date for this debate has as yet been set.

MARYLAND OFFICE
SUPPLY CO.
111 W. Baltimore Street
SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Meyer & Thalheimer
STATIONERS
PRINTERS
10 N. Howard Street

OREY'S Bar-B-Q INC.
25th Street at Kirk Ave.
24 Hour Service
Sandwiches Soft Drinks

Wagner & Wagner
PHARMACISTS
We Deliver
502 W. Cold Spring Lane
UN. 4434

For your FAVORITE RECORDS
classical or swing
visit the
H. K. Co.
RECORD SHOP
Fifth Floor
HOCHSCHILD KOHN & CO.

McPherson's
Haberdashers

Redwood & Light St.

THE
BOONE ELDER CO.
WINES & SPIRITS
12 W. Eager St.
VE. 6866-7 Balto. - 1, Md.

M. GREENEBAUM AND SONS
DIRECT DIAMOND IMPORTERS AND JEWELERS
2200 E. Monument St. 104 N. Howard St.
Wo. 0523 Sa. 4544

GEO. J. STORCK
LUMBER — MILLWORK — WALLBOARDS — HARDWARE
PAINTS — CUSTOM MILLWORK
2406-18 Greenmount Ave. UN. 3500

"Duel In The Sun"

"When a single movie offers murder, rape, attempted fratricide, train-wrecking, fisticuffs, singing, dancing, drunkenness, religion, war, prostitution, fancy equitation and sacred and profane love, all in 135 minutes, the fact that it has neither taste nor art is not likely to deter the unsqueamish."

—Life, February 10, 1947

Mr. David O. Selznick, the motion picture producer, knows his trade. Having invested $6,000,000 in the most morally offensive photoplay of recent years, he undoubtedly feels confident of a suitable return on that investment. We hope he is wrong!

Selznick's Duel in the Sun has followed closely the pattern of forerunner Howard Hughes' notorious The Outlaw. All film magnates realize that there are three ways to make motion pictures. The first method is to manufacture fine screen material, of high moral tone and good family entertainment value. This method has apparently been abandoned as entirely too difficult.

The second results in pictures of good moral content, but dull in entertainment value. That people don't seem to attend this type of picture was discovered in 1946 when box office receipts showed a 40% drop.

That drop in revenue is what hurt. While some cinemagnates are undoubtedly fine artists and interested in quality of product as much as in revenue received, too many others are governed only by the almighty dollar sign. These latter have adopted picture making method number three to swell their bank accounts.

Movie type three is miserable as entertainment. Without a doubt no one would plunk his half dollar down at the ticket window if he were not urged to it by the blatantly advertised immorality of the film in question.

Mr. Selznick has spent $2,000,000 on this type of advertising alone. Free advertising in the form of reviews of the film by magazines and newspapers helps his cause much more than paid space rates.

When Boston booksellers ban a book, regardless of its actual merit, its sales skyrocket throughout the country. When Duel in the Sun was given a pre-release run in Los Angeles three weeks ago, receipts went up 30% over normal. It's practically a science.

Apparently the movie's self-imposed Hays Office system of censorship has failed. State Boards, such as those in Maryland and New York, are fair sanctions. A ban in New York would cost producer Selznick $2,000,000. However, few states have such local boards. The ultimate decision rests with the people who haunt the box offices. The decision is between movies which one can conscientiously attend with family or date, and those at which one would be ashamed to be seen. But, if YOU are unconscientious, YOU will slyly attend anyway.

This appeal is not merely to Catholics. No one can seriously contend that such movies should be made the norm of film entertainment. It is unfortunate that boycott is the only system that will work, but it is.

Mr. Martin Quigley, prominent Catholic layman and publisher of Motion Picture Daily and Motion Picture Herald, was instrumental in having Duel remade, though the remake is still not satisfactory.

But with the problem leaving the public with no doubt in their minds as to the intent and motive of moviemakers in manufacturing such vehicles, we feel the challenge will be met with a vast emptiness in theatres showing Duel in the Sun.

CORRECTION

The last GREYHOUND incorrectly stated that the stones in the ring donated for the benefit of the Memorial Chapel were given by Miss Agnes Boggs. The emerald and diamonds were presented by Mrs. William J. Brown, maternal Grandmother of the late W. Paul Boggs.

"The trouble with this paper," said the editor one day last week, "is that we don't get enough letters from readers complaining about the things we print. Now if we could get somebody to write a real miserable humor column . . ." At this point his eye fell on me. "How about it?" he said, "we promise not to print your name."

And so . . . rather than eat my lunch in the cafe every day, I rustled the following from old copies of the Fifth Column, Gob Humor and the first edition of Joe Miller.

NEWS ITEMS FROM HERE AND THERE:

The Chess Team will have tryouts in the alcoves of the Library next week. Aspirants who wish to limber up may do so by applying for jobs as manicurists in the kitchen of the Oak Room. Ask for Mr. Bamberger at the counter. If he's not there, try looking under the counter.

CALCULUS-ATIONS: We hear from the four H-m-m-m-m-m boys of Mr. Dawkins: Enoch, Lohrey, Rebbert and Lally that they will apply for portal to portal pay next week.

An unnamed student, trying to pass the recent examinations paid another student $5.00 to surreptitiously enter the stencil room and steal a copy of the exams. They found out about it and expelled the fellow from school, so I gave him his $5.00 back. It seemed the only right thing to do.

SEEN AROUND: Ned Barrett and Johnny Grimm pushing more trade for the Peabody Bookshop . . . looking up the masters, no doubt . . . draw one for me too . . . Dudley Shoemaker, who wishes those guys would leave that book-store sign alone, sitting in the cafe drinking, of all things—milk!!! chocolate too . . . and Leo (Nemo) Haslbeck campaigning for class presidency . . . only bid he got was the one he voted for himself.

Professor: "... and since perception is a cognitive faculty which involves apprehension of organized wholes on a sensory level, in perceiving the mind apprehends in a special manner certain things with which it is concerned integrating sensory data from all sources into . . . Mr. Croghan, what is the matter? You're scratching your head."

Croghan: "It itches."

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN DEPT.: All you out that way should beware of the net which encircled former student John Ahlers who found out that his class ring just fit his girl, provided she wrap six yards of adhesive tape around the back . . . while Tom Malooly claims he'll marry that girl come May . . . and Joe Thaler says he'll be the last one in his class to get married . . . and so young too . . . anybody want to give him odds?

MAN WANTED: We'd like to find the guy who started the collection to buy Richard's roommate a key. Yeh, he got a quarter from me too.

It was a law in the Middle Ages, according to that eminent archivist, Doc Doehler, that the STUDENTS at the universities told the professors what days to take off. Of course, Ocean City wasn't as well known then as it is now.

Entertainment Calendar

Stage . . .

Week of February 24—The Importance of Being Earnest, a revival of the Oscar Wilde comedy.

Week of March 3—A Fatal Weakness starring Ina Clare. This George Kelly comedy is straight from New York with most of the original cast.

Week of March 17—The Iceman Cometh by Eugene O'Neill. Don't miss this newest play by America's King of Drama.

Concert . . .

February 25—National Symphony Orchestra with Hans Kindler conducting, will feature the famed Arthur Rubinstein as soloist, at the Lyric.

February 27—The Posario and Antonio dancing company with their entire Spanish program, at the Lyric.

March 2—Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians at the Lyric. Matinee at 3 p.m. and evening show at 8:30 p.m.

Rodeo . . .

March 1 thru March 16—Fifth Regiment Armory with Ken Maynard and Smoky, the Wonder Horse.

Movies . . .

Keiths Theatre will show California with Ray Milland and Barbara Stanwyck, in technicolor.

New will show The Shocking Miss Pilgrim with Betty Grable. The story of the first girl stenographer in Boston.

The Town presents Sinbad the Sailor, with Douglas Fairbanks, in technicolor.

Stanley presents Nora Prentiss with Ann Sheridan and Kent Smith. (Legion of Decency Classification: B)

The Reader's Right . . .

Disgusted Hearts Dept.

Editor, THE GREYHOUND
Sir:

Mine is not exactly a love-lo problem, but I'm a plain girl, and you all know how hard plain girls have to work to be able to settle down in a nice comfortable little cottage. It's a science. You need moon, a man, and a radio playing soft romantic tunes.

That, sir, is my complaint. Let me list a few of the songs heard over the networks: Cement Mixer, Fried Fram Sauce, Stone Cold Dead at the Market, Yeb Roc Heresi, and now, Open the Door, Richard. Richard doesn't open that door so, I'm going to have at it with a firm ax.

Grandmother, bless her, didn't know a soft time when she had one. Why, she just invited her man in, told him to open his collar so I could see in two dimensions, and wound up the gramophone. She could play Darling, I am Growing Old all night until he got the point.

What I want to know, sir, is what are we going to do about it. Offhand, I can name three occasions when a whispered "Darling, I—" was suddenly interrupted by some idiot screeching "Lil Abner, Don't Marry That Gal." That's what is so loathsome about the things, the uncanny timing.

Yours till Richard opens the door
Ann Nonymous.

Meetin' Seton

When Greyhounds are meetin'
A team that's unbeaten
It's time for the wise guys to learn
That Reitz and his fighters
May prove to be blighters
Of records it takes time to earn.
Those winners from Seton
Encountered a greetin'
That left 'em behind at the end
As Green and Gray shootin'
Caused cheerin' and rootin'
Which made all the rafters to bend
And now they are fixin'
To win Mason-Dixon
We speed 'em with loud cheerin'
shouts
For Captain and players
Who forced all the "layers"
To shorten their odds for the bouts
Isaac S. George, '01

The Greyhound

Student publication of Loyola College, Evergreen, Cold Spring Lane and Charles St., Baltimore-10, Md. Published triweekly except during holidays and periods of examinations. Phone Ch. 9616.

Vol. XX, No. 7 Feb. 21, 1947

Editor-in-Chief . . . Terrence E. Burke
Managing Editor . . . John H. Plunket
Sports Editor . . . Maurice F. Mackey
News Editor . . . Francis X. Gallagher
Copy Editor . . . James E. Bowler
Photography Editor . . . Jack Phillip
Advertising Director . . . James Brady
Business Mgr. . . . . Calvert Kenning

News Staff . . . Ed. Barrett, Thomas Comber, Gus A. Crenson, Joseph Davis, James Fusting, Frank Goldsmith, Mannes Greenberg, William Heffner, George Herman, Theodore Heying, Cyril Keller, Charles Kimmel, C. Rodgers Kines, Thomas Lalley, James O'Neill.

Sports Staff . . . Geo. Brown, Edward Hart, Spencer Davidson, John Evelius, Donald Fay, Thomas Gisriel, Raymond Parr, Edward Vidali.

Circulation Managers . . . Francis Janowiak, Frank Rackensperger
Exchanges . . . . . John Krager
Photography . . . . . George Alderman, Ryan Bijur, Albert Tiedemann.

Subscription—One Dollar a Year
Entered as second-class matter August 13, 1943, at the post office at Baltimore, Maryland, under the Acts of March 3, 1879.

Greyhounds Upset Unbeaten Seton Hall

Running With The Hounds

by M. F. Mackey

The headline on this page is not news, strictly speaking. For some of our alumni in the armed forces and others away from home it may be the most amazing piece of athletic news since they have graduated from Loyola. We are still talking about that upset victory over a high-flying, undefeated Seton Hall basketball team because it has all the aspects of an epic event.

When the Greyhounds took the court that evening, Loyola fans did not expect to see them conquer the famous Pirates from South Orange. The consensus of hope was that our battling cagers would give the visitors a terrific fight and that, if they did lose, it would be by a very slim margin. When, with seconds left to play, the scoreboard showed Loyola leading, many a fan in that gymnasium could hardly believe his eyes. The scene that followed the final bell was one of jubilant pandemonium, a frenzied excitement that has not yet finished echoing over this campus. This was indeed the upset of the year in collegiate basketball, bringing a deservedly great Loyola of Baltimore team national notice.

As we see it, the outstanding factor in that triumph was the defensive play of the Greyhounds. Several spectacular shots were made by Jim Lacy & Co. at crucial points in the game, but the fact that Seton Hall never made a string of baskets at any one point in the game and that they seldom made any easy shots was, we think, the winning difference. With possession of the ball, the Pirates were so closely guarded they could rarely make a break for the basket but were forced to many off-balance set shots from a distance. The Greyhounds, playing their most alert game of the season, several times stole the ball from their opponents and raced down the court to rack up the precious points. In the rebound department, Paul Feeley, Sid Roche and Lacy often outfought Seton Hall under the boards.

Offensively, Lacy's 22 points on seven field goals and eight fouls add up to the outstanding player on the court. Andy O'Donnell and Tom Gisriel were accurate with their shots, fed the ball well and constantly eluded their guards to get set for the target. Wish Galvin played his best game that night. The fact that he went out on fouls is an indication of the great defensive game he played. Fred Olinger, together with Feeley, showed the fans what a couple of first-class reserves can do to sustain the pace of the first-string five.

Thanks, men, for a victory that exceeded all expectations. None of us has seen a more thrilling Loyola victory. You were great!

Even the Monday-morning coaches were silent in awe—some tribute to "Lefty" Reitz, coach of the Greyhounds. No group of men, however talented individually, can make a smoothly coordinated winning team without the able, experienced leadership of a good coach. It should not be necessary for Loyola to beat a "big-time" opponent in the upset of the year, in order that the coach may be duly recognized.

We cannot conclude this piece without mention of the fine sportsmanship exhibited by Seton Hall in that game. After a winning streak that extended back to 1942, to lose to Loyola was a sad event for the Pirates. Yet, when the excited, victory-flushed Greyhounds returned to their dressing room after the game, the Seton Hall team was there to congratulate the men on their victory, shaking hands with each man. The era of clean, hard-fought, sportsmanlike collegiate competition is not past.

Jim Lacy, No. 16, is shown eluding Bob Wanzer of Seton Hall in a fast-moving play that resulted in a goal for Loyola. Lacy played the entire game, racking up 22 points for the Greyhounds.

photo by Alderman

Loyola Defense Is Main Factor In 54-53 Win

by Don Fay

Three weeks have already passed since the Loyola-Seton Hall game, but it will be a long time before Greyhound supporters stop talking about the performance Lefty Reitz's lads gave in staging the biggest collegiate basketball upset of the winter in edging the Pirates, 54-53.

Remarkable defensive work and a brilliant performance by Jim Lacy were the two greatest factors of the victory. Loyola threw up an almost impenetrable defense with its man-for-man guarding, and the touted visiting sharpshooters were rarely in a position for a clear shot.

Lacy Scores 22

As for Lacy, it goes without saying that his All-American chances were multiplied immeasurably as he calmly guided the Hounds with a magnificent full-game performance.

Although very effective all evening, Jim saved his most sensational basket-making efforts for the final five minutes to rack up a total of 22 points. Lacy put the Hounds back in front after twenty minutes of trailing with a layup and foul to push the count to 47-46.

Two Quick Baskets

Then, he twice stole the ball and dribbled under for two-pointers, the second of which was a back hand twisting hook shot that bounced three times off the rim and board before dropping through. He added a foul and Loyola held a 52-46 lead and Seton Hall called time.

However, the Pirates scored twice more before Tom Gisriel, who excelled under the boards all night, dropped in a fancy one-hander from the side to clinch the contest. Bob Wanzer of the losers dropped in a set shot to end the scoring.

With three seconds remaining, Wanzer fouled Fred Olinger, and Loyola elected to take the ball out of bounds. Lacy promptly threw the ball high in the air, and by the time it hit the floor, the game was over.

La Salle Topples Quintet, 59-49; Lacy Scores 26 To Lead Attack

Team Scoring

Scoring totals for the season, as of February 18:

Player	F. G.	F.	Total
Jim Lacy	178	138	494
Andy O'Donnell	72	25	169
Tom Gisriel	48	32	128
Sid Roche	48	19	115
Fred Olinger	43	16	102
Paul Feeley	36	20	92
Wish Galvin	32	24	88

Mason-Dixon Standings

	W.	L.	Pct.
Loyola College	10	1	.909
American Univ.	9	1	.900
Johns Hopkins	8	3	.727
Western Maryland	5	4	.556

In a breakneck basketball game before a packed house at Evergreen, La Salle College defeated the Hounds, 59-49, as Jim Lacy led the losers' output with 26 points.

Although constantly behind, Loyola strove doggedly to overcome the visitors, but never came closer than 24-19, during the second period. Lacy kept the visitors from making a rout of the contest as he caged ten field goals and six for eight foul shots.

Bill Gallagher, with 13, and Bob Walters, with 10, led La Salle in the scoring column. The Philadelphians had defeated the Evergreen five in December, 71-46.

National, Local Writers And Coaches Nominate Jim Lacy For All-America Basketball Rating

Rodger H. Pippen, Sports Editor, Baltimore News-Post: "Jim Lacy of Loyola College is certainly among the top players in collegiate circles and should undoubtedly be an All-American choice."

Chic Feldman, Scranton Tribune: "Lacy displayed the finest exhibition of collegiate basketball that the Scranton fans have ever witnessed."

Bob Davies, Coach, Seton Hall College: "Jim Lacy is the best collegiate basketball player I have seen anywhere this year. He gave us more trouble than any other player we have faced this season."

Paul Menton, Sports Editor, Evening Sun: "Until Jim Lacy began dropping goals with such consistency that he found himself in second place on the nation's scoring roster, his nomination as an All-American was limited to this section and to the teammates he played with during the two seasons he was in the Navy. All who have seen the quiet, black-haired star of Loyola's team will readily agree that he must be considered with the much better publicized aces of Kentucky, Notre Dame, Oklahoma Aggies, etc."

Jim Lacy

Frank Keaney, Coach, Rhode Island State U.: "Jim Lacy of Loyola College of Baltimore is the best basketball player our team has played against this year."

Joseph B. Kelly, The Morning Sun: "Jim Lacy, in addition to being one of the greatest collegiate basketball shots, is excellent on defense and is an outstanding play-maker."

WARNER AND COMPANY

18-20 East Baltimore Street

HATS FURNISHINGS SPORTSWEAR CLOTHING

J. V. BROOKS, JR.
President

LORETTA B. BROOKS
Secretary

INSURANCE—General Lines

E. CARY NALLE & CO., INC.

8-10 SOUTH STREET

Call LExington 1415-1416

Have you obtained your Students Medical Expense Accident Policy?

Francis C. Dorsey
INCORPORATED

Engineers and Contractors

Plumbing, Heating and

Electric Construction

4520 Schenley Rd. Un. 3103-4

Swimmers Battle Randolph-Macon Today

Wrestlers Face W.M.

Attempting to get back into the win column at the expense of Western Maryland, Loyola's wrestling team grapples with the Terrors today at Evergreen. To date, the Greyhounds have been pinned by the matmen from Virginia, Washington College, Washington and Lee, Hopkins and Franklin and Marshall.

In explanation of the above record, Coach Goodman remarked: "We have been playing out of our class, but despite the inexperience of the team as a whole, our boys are improving nicely." The team wrestled Gallaudet to a draw, Captain Phil Lohrey winning the final unlimited class bout.

Star Grapplers

Outstanding point-makers on the squad are Mus Bower and Phil Lohrey, each boasting four triumphs in seven attempts. Bower came to Loyola as a veteran wrestler from McDonogh where, in 1944, he was Scholastic Champion in the 155 lb. class. Lohrey, also from McDonogh, ruled the 166 pounders.

Jack Enoch follows with three triumphs, while Bob Gamson and John Mohler claim one win apiece. With improvement in daily workouts, Gordon Erberts is bucking for a starting assignment in the 165 lb. class. Chic Besche, Bob Tumulty and Red Kelley are candidates in the 145 lb. division, while George Buchness and Carter Beese are vying for first-string berths in the 165 lb. division.

Look To Tourney

Although on the losing end of most of their matches during the season, the matmen are eyeing the Mason-Dixon tournament in a revengeful mood. Goodman declares that his boys are definitely pointing to the tourney, and have high hopes of upsetting the more successful teams.

Loyola's swimming team, which has won an impressive string of meets, reminiscent of the championship teams of '41, '42. This photo was taken immediately after the meet with West Chester Teachers. Standing—B. Baker, (Coach), F. Locke, C. Gehring, B. Dunn, M. Gately, C. Bamberger, J. Downey. Front Row—O'Hare, L. Greenbaum, J. Oaster, C. Brandon, C. Smith.

Tournament Tickets

Admission price for single games of the Mason-Dixon Tournament at Catholic University, Washington, D. C., is $1.00. Student tickets are 60¢.

March 6 (Thurs.)

1st Game, 6:30 2nd Game, 7:50
3rd game, 9:10 4th Game, 10:30

March 7 (Fri.)

1st Game, 8:00 2nd Game, 9:30

March 8 (Sat.)

Consolation Game at 8:00 p. m.
Final Game at 9:30 p. m.

Six Players Score 7 Points As Courtmen Trip Scranton

B-Squadmen End Season

Thus far this season Ned Stevenson's junior Hounds have established an overall record of four victories against seven defeats. Though the losses dominate the record in the current 46-47 campaign, the success of the quint in two out of its last three games is proving to be the highlight of the season. After this recent success, they are preparing for a stretch drive in order to finish the season with a creditable record.

Daily practice is replacing their former schedule of workouts, and this, along with the return of Buns Vidali and Jim O'Connor to the team's roster is expected to bolster the strength of the team. In eleven games to date the team has amassed a total scoring mark of 385 points. Leading this scoring parade are the three stalwarts of the team, Frank Scrivener with 85 points, Jack Wintz with 79 points and Ed Hughes with 64 markers.

Remaining Games

The squad will finish the season with three games that should prove interesting. They will meet the "B" team of the Western Maryland Terrors at Westminster on Feb. 25. Two days later, they'll be at American U. in Washington, D. C., and on Feb. 28 will take on Towson Catholic High School's varsity five at Towson.

After defeating the University of Scranton on their home court early last January, the Loyola quintet trounced the Scranton boys for the second time last Sunday afternoon, here at Evergreen. Before a near capacity house, the Greyhounds ran up a 55 to 45 victory.

The Hounds were never in serious trouble throughout the contest; it was just a case of seeing if the Scranton team could hold the Loyola five to a small margin. The end of the first quarter saw the Hounds out in front by the safe margin of 20 to 13.

Score Run Up

The second stanza was just like the first as the Loyola quintet continued to run up the score. Likewise the Hounds set up a terrific defense which allowed the Tommies only 8 counters, while Loyola accounted for 15 points. At the end of the second quarter the score stood Loyola 35 and Scranton 21.

Mike DeNoir was the big gun for the Scranton five in the third period as his outside shots proved effective in diminishing the wide margin. He was likewise high scorer for the afternoon coming through for 7 baskets and 1 for 2 foul shots for a total of 15 points.

The final rally put on by the Tommies was still not enough to overcome the Loyola lead, even though they outscored the Green and Gray quintet in the fourth quarter 11 to 7. As the last seconds were ticking away, the Greyhounds held a margin of 10 points, and came out the victors by the score of 55 to 45.

Jim Lacy, Tom Gisriel, Jim Bailey, Fred Olinger, Andy O'Donnell and Wish Galvin each scored 7 counters, while Sid Roche made 1 basket and 4 for 5 free throws for 6 points. Paul Feeley and Bill Johnson each scored 3 points and Bill Ferguson accounted for 1 point.

Tankmen Drive For M-D Title

Loyola's powerful swim team faces a crowded schedule week-end with two meets listed consecutive days. The Greyhounds entertain Randolph-Macon at this afternoon in the Evergreen and travel to Pennsylvania tomorrow for a non-conference contest with Swarthmore College.

The natators have a clean slate in Mason-Dixon competition so far this year. They have beaten conference teams four times to date. Downing Randolph-Macon by 39-27 count last month in a 100 yard freestyle race three times and taken the event on each occasion.

Bruz Outstanding

Bruz Dailey, captain of the team is racking up an outstanding performance for the Hounds. Swimming in the 220 yard freestyle event, Bruz has finished in all four conference meets. He has entered the 100 yard freestyle race three times and taken the event on each occasion.

Pushing Bruz for individual honors is Leon Greenbaum, Greyhound representative in the backstroke event. He emerged victorious event of the three times he swam the event, and also performs for the Hounds in the 400 yard freestyle relay.

Other Members

Other outstanding members of the team are Jim Oaster, who swims the 50 yard dash and the 100 yard freestyle, as well as the 400 yard event, and Manley Gately, who rounds out the relay foursome. Brain Braddon and Clint Bamberger handle the breaststroke department for the Hounds. Jack Blondell is the other Loyola swimmer in the 220 yard freestyle and the 400 yard relay event.

Indoor Trackmen To Run In Local Meet

Announcement of a South Atlantic A. A. U. indoor track meet is sending the Loyola cindermen scurrying after their shorts and track shoes. An indoor circuit will be set up in Baltimore's Fifth Regiment Armory and the events will be held on March 22.

Navy, University of Maryland, Hopkins, Morgan, Catholic University, Washington, Georgetown, Gallaudet, and Loyola will compete in the three collegiate events: a 100 yard dash, an 880 relay and a hurdle event, while the middle and long distance runs will be held in open competition.

Stars In Mile Contest

Gil Dodds, Bill Hulse, Tom Quinn and Rune Gustafsson have been invited to contend in the mile event. Loyola's own distance star, George Brown, who took second place in the South Atlantic six mile cross-country grind this fall, will probably run unattached in the mile event. Besides Brown, Tom Comber, Jim Kaufman, Larry Kinison and Jim Norris are to be found pounding the cinders in preparation for the March meet.

Intramural Cage Teams Battle In Dual League Competition

Only two weeks of intramural basketball activity have been written in the books and already some keen competition is shaping itself among the student teams of the college.

Games are played daily at 1:20 and 2:20. The league is divided into two sections, with the winner of each meeting at the close of the schedule to determine the final champion.

Top games of the week found Rudy's Rowdies defeating the Distinque Artisans, 42-22, and the Gunners winning from Rackens-berger Rabblrowzers, 39-21. In the first game, Ed Lynch led the winners with 16 points, while Sal Commarata threw in 18 markers to pace the Gunners in their victory.

Opening day action saw Stricker's All-Stars taking a 19-10 decision from the May Freshmen, and the Sand Dune Kids triumphing over Bud's Wisers, 25-16. In the latter game, Don Fay and Stu Gallo-way paced the winners, with Fay scoring 10 points.

Members of the varsity team are acting as referees. There is no admission charge.

KIRSCH'S RESTAURANT
FOOD AT ITS BEST
5812-14 York Road

EZAP
Dandruff - Simple Itching Scalp
The Dandro-Nox Co.
Baltimore, Md.

WILLIAM GRILL
Contractor & Builder
Construction - Remodeling
Jobbing
3034 Clifton Park Terrace
Baltimore - 13, Md.

General Insurance
3600 Callaway Ave.
Liberty 2880
John J. Kernan, Jr.

BROMO-SELTZER
for
HEADACHES

O'TOOLE GENERAL TIRE CO.

10 E. Mt. Royal Ave.

Liquors - Cordials - Wines - Etc.
Charles Liquor Store
WE DELIVER
Ice Cold Beer
4009 Old York Rd.
Baltimore-18 - Bel. 9747
Tux. 0146 Tux. 2500

The Big Home Furnishing Store
Where You Feel At Home
Four Besche Brothers
1041-43-45-47 Light St.

Western Maryland Bows By 59-43; Lacy Scores 25

by Spence Davidson

The Greyhound basketball team rang up its tenth Conference victory last Saturday night by defeating Western Maryland College, 59-43. A capacity crowd was on hand to see Jim Lacy tally a total of 25 points for the evening. Performing against man-for-man defense, Big Jim dropped in eight field goals and executed perfect performance at the foul line, registering on all nine of his attempts.

The contest got off to a slow start and it was several minutes before Walt Sibiski, Terror high scorer, rang up the first point after being fouled by Wish Galvin. The Hounds retaliated when Andy O'Donnell dropped in a free throw and then went on to take a commanding lead. Western Maryland rallied in the closing minutes of the first stanza and stood on the short end of a 27-count when the period ended.

Hounds Explode

Shortly after the second half began, the Greyhounds suddenly came alive and dropped in eleven straight points. The Terrors were never able to overcome this lead and the Hounds coasted to victory with sixteen point edge. Loyola substituted freely and every member of the team saw action.

The Terrors played a rough game and lost two men via the five foul rule. Several others were close to the limit, including Sibiski, who marked up fifteen points for runner-up honors.

Defense Good

The Greyhound defense was practically airtight and the Terrors made most of their points by one-and set shots and Sibiski's specialty, the pivot shot from the foul circle. The Hounds had control of the rebounds in the first stanza, but couldn't do as well in the second period.

Jim Lacy proved to the crowd that he is a team player by feeding the ball to teammates on several occasions when he himself might have scored. He and Fred Olinger combined to execute one of the best plays of the year, when they took the ball through the Terror defense together, with Olinger tallying a lay-up shot at the finish.

The Greyhounds travel to Westminster on Feb. 25 for a return game with the Terrors, a game that may decide positions for the coming tournament.

Sports Calendar

Basketball

Feb. 22—Washington Col. (away)
25—Western Maryland (away)
27—American Univ. (home)

Mar. 1—Texas Wesleyan (at Coliseum). Tickets on sale beginning Monday at the athletic office and Triangle Sporting Goods Store.

6, 7, 8—M-D Tournament at Washington, D. C. (Catholic University)

Swimming

Feb. 21—Randolph-Macon (home)
22—Swarthmore (away)
26—American Univ. (home)

Wrestling

Feb. 21—Western Maryland (home)
Mar. 8—M-D Tournament at Westminster Maryland

Wish Galvin lays one in against Western Maryland while Allan Jacobson, Terror guard, races upcourt in an attempt to stop him. The Hounds won, 59-43.

Substitutes Display Marked Improvement; Feeley And Olinger Prove Most Valuable

"Substitution for Loyola" is a well known phrase at Hound basket contests this winter, but Evergreen followers have no fears when Lefty Reitz sends his second stringers into action.

Two lads who have subbed often this winter with no appreciable loss to the team's coordination are Fred Olinger and Paul Feeley.

Olinger, sidelined at the start of the season, has hit his stride during the last few weeks and is bolstering Loyola scoring records while establishing a reputation as a perfect passer.

Feeley Improved

Sharp improvement in the rebound department has characterized Feeley's progress through the season. In addition to his board-clearing work, he has shown well on one handers from the corner.

A trio of Baltimore scholastic stars of a year ago have proven that their installation on a top-notch college roster was not too big a jump in their basketball careers. Bill Ferguson, Bill Johnson and Bob Barry have come along so fast, that at certain times, Reitz has inserted each with four of the first team and found the results hardly noticeable. Ferguson is a deadly shot from the outside, while Johnson excels in both set shots and one handers down the middle. Barry, at 6' 3", has been most effective on one handers off the bucket and general team play.

Bailey, Ward Shine

Two boys who have come along fast during the last month are Jim Bailey and Buck Ward. Bailey, who hails from Pennsylvania, is a set shot wizard and a rebound star, while Ward makes up for his lack of height with his shifty and elusive work on the floor.

Ed McGarry has proven himself a sparkplug all year on offense and defense, while Bernie Saltysiak, after a late start, has improved rapidly.

Fred Olinger

Paul Feeley

Washington, Western Maryland, American U. Face Greyhounds In Mason-Dixon Contests

by Mickey Parr

Capping a successful record in his first full season back at the helm of the Loyola basketball team after a Navy hitch, Coach Lefty Reitz will send his boys down the home stretch beginning tomorrow night.

Three games remain on the regular schedule, and the Greyhounds have their sights trained on a triple barreled victory to insure another Mason-Dixon Conference championship. This windup, in one way, will be a relief to the Green and Gray players who have spent a busy winter running off a terrific 28 game schedule.

Two Games Away

The Evergreen quintet will play Washington College tomorrow evening at Chestertown, Western Maryland on February 25 at Westminster, and entertain American University on February 27 at Loyola. (After this, the Mason-Dixon tournament is played on March 6, 7 and 8.)

Despite the poorer records of their opponents, the Greyhound five is not facing a setup. Each contest is against a Mason-Dixon Conference foe who points for its tussles with Loyola. This means the Sho'men, Green Terrors and Eagles will strive for above par performances on their particular nights, in an effort to upset the mighty Greyhounds.

Real Thriller Due

It seems rather a whim of fate that the final game is against American U., for this match has all the earmarks of a thriller. Our lads have a real revenge thirst to be satisfied against their Washington rivals. It was the high-flying Eagles, if you'll recall, who put an early season blight on the Loyola conference record with a 55-51 victory in a roughly played tilt.

Two factors favor our own cause in this second get-together. The Green and Gray basketballers will be playing at home before a highly partisan audience, and Lefty Reitz has his cagers working much more smoothly as a unit than was the case in those first few weeks of the season.

JIM CORKRAN'S
FINE WINES AND LIQUORS
5406 York Road
TU. 6660

IT'S SMART TO SHOP
- at -
KEN'S MEN SHOP
3349 Belair Rd.
Wolfe 3349

Manufacturers of Paper Boxes
George P. Killian Co.
1211 Penna. Ave., N. W.
Washington, D. C.

INDEPENDENT BEEF COMPANY
COMPLETE FOOD MARKETS
Beer — Wines — Liquors
531 Rose Hill Terrace
897 N. Howard Street
Un. 2251 Ver. 7430

Silents And C.U. Beaten

Outside Washington was being snowed under in a cold wave. Inside Gallaudet was blanketed under a heat wave by a powerful Loyola attack, which romped to a 82 to 27 win. Jim Lacy was high scorer for the evening registering 33 points, six points more than the whole Gallaudet team could score.

Gallaudet put up a spirited effort in the first quarter to upset the highly favored Loyola five, but the Hounds' first team of Sid Roche, Jim Lacy, Tom Gisriel, Wish Galvin and Andy O'Donnell worked so smoothly that their dreams were shattered.

Loyola Reserves Shine

Early in the second quarter the Hounds' coach sent in the second team. This quintet continued the fast attack with the same finesse as the first five and at the half held a lop-sided 39 to 11 lead.

Lefty Reitz started the second stringers, along with Lacy in the second half and the Greyhounds continued to romp. Andy O'Donnell with his fast cuts under the basket and long outside shots was second highest scorer for the Hounds with 14 points. Fred Olinger, and Paul Feeley each racked up 7 points and Jim Bailey made three set shots for 6 counters.

Catholic U.

The Greyhounds scored their ninth Mason-Dixon Conference win in ten starts by trouncing Catholic University 69 to 45. The visitors grabbed an early 4 to 0 lead on a pair of hook shots by Gene Sklarz and Cranstan. But Wish Galvin with two set shots from the corner and Tom Gisriel with a pivot off the foul line wiped out the margin.

Fred Olinger and Jim Lacy then put the Hounds ahead with two cord splitters apiece from the outside, and the Evergreen five continued to romp with a comfortable 10-12 point margin for the remaining of the opening half and the period ended with the Hounds ahead 37 to 26.

Catholic U. Rallies

At the start of the second period, Catholic U put on a determined drive and closed the gap to 5 points by employing a clever fast break in which two men were always under the basket.

Midway of the second half the Hounds began to draw away again with Feeley, Gisriel, O'Donnell and Olinger clicking under the basket with lay-ups from a well executed fast break, which featured brilliant passes by Jim Lacy.

Andy O'Donnell and Jim Lacy were tied for high scoring honors with 13 points; Tom Gisriel followed with 10 counters, Paul Feeley was next with 9 points and Fred Olinger came through with 8 counters.

The Greatest Shows
In Radio Are On
WBAL
1090 on your dial

Society Names Father Bunn President

At a meeting held on February 4, the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., was unanimously re-elected president of the Mental Hygiene Society of Maryland.

Father Bunn has held the position for three consecutive terms.

Upholds Maryland's Record

Supported by the Community Fund, the Mental Hygiene Society has as its purpose the dissemination of information and the promotion of education concerning mental health and illness. It is largely responsible for Maryland's high record in the field of mental health.

The central clinic of the Society is maintained at Lombard and Greene Streets in Baltimore, in conjunction with the Psychiatric Department of the University of Maryland Hospital. The Board of Directors is composed of individuals of high professional reputation in psychiatry and those outstanding in social welfare work.

Counties Have Clinics

Part time clinics are also maintained by the Society in the counties of Maryland. It is intended to enlist membership of independent citizens' groups to aid in this work in the future.

Dr. Ralph B. Truitt, executive secretary of the Society, was instrumental in placing the organization on a firm financial basis.

City Chessmen Top Loyola

In its first outside match of the year, the Loyola Chess team was defeated by a similar aggregation from City College, by a score of 3½-1½. The match was played in the library at City on Thursday, January 30, at 2:30 p. m.

The City team, led by Robert Prem who is playing his fourth season, had too much experience and playing ability for the Loyola club to handle.

Bradley Wins

James Bradley was the lone Loyola winner. Francis McFarland fought his opponent to a stalemate, while Cy Keller, Jack Phillips and Tom Comber, went down in defeat.

A re-match is being planned which will be held here at Loyola and the Hound's chessmen are hoping for revenge.

Change Meeting Time

Because of the changes in scholastic schedules of many of the members, the meetings of the club will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:50 in room 202. A social meeting is also going to be held one night each month.

Elections Held By Two Classes

Under the supervision of the Student Council, First Semester Junior and Second Semester Sophomore class elections were conducted during the week of February 2. As a result of the balloting which took place on Thursday, February 6, Paul Feeley was chosen president of the Junior Class, J. Allan Panuska, vice-president, Edward Rommel, secretary, and Theodore Heying, treasurer.

John T. Enoch was re-elected president of the Second Semester Sophomore Class on Wednesday, February 5. His election marked the third time he has been chosen to head the class. Vice-presidential duties were voted to Charles Barrett. John Hohman and James Norris were elected to the offices of treasurer and secretary, respectively.

Manley Gately, William Grill and James Laster were also nominated in the Junior Class elections and Thomas Padden, William Davis and Edward Bangs were the other nominees in the Sophomore elections.

IRC's Meet On March 22

A meeting of the International Relations Clubs of the colleges of Maryland and Washington will be held on March 22 at Notre Dame of Maryland College. The conference is being held in conjunction with the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

The topic under consideration at the meeting will be the problem of immigration quotas. The discussion will be carried on in accordance with the procedure of the Economic and Social Council. Gus A. Crenson, president of the IRC will head Loyola's delegation.

Western Maryland College will be host for the next Regional Conference of all Maryland IRC's.

College Calendar

- Feb. 21—Greyhound Social: 7:45, Acorn room.
—Debate. Loyola vs. St. Joseph's Philadelphia, 8 p. m.; Library.
23—Sodality Union Meeting, 11:30 a. m., Calvert and Monument Sts.
24—School holiday.
Mar. 7—Georgetown Debate.
9—First Spring Lecture, 4 p. m.; Fr. Walsh on "Apostolic Fathers."
14—Third quarter ends.
16—Second in Spring Lecture series, 4:00 p. m. "St. Jerome" by Fr. McGuire.

The above painting of St. Ignatius, done by an unknown Spanish 17th Century artist, was recently presented to the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J. for the new chapel.

Painting Of St. Ignatius Donated For Chapel

A painting of St. Ignatius Loyola has been presented to the new Memorial Chapel by Mr. Lewis Gouveneur Morris of New York City. The painting, which once belonged to Napoleon I, was done in Spain in the 17th Century.

Dramatics Club Casts New Play

William Carver was elected president of the Mask and Rapier Dramatic Society at a meeting on Tuesday, January 28. The office of president was the only position decided by the election. However, Mannes Greenberg will continue to serve in the capacity of Business Manager of the society.

Spring production plans were discussed at a round table conference. Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., the Moderator, appointed a committee of five men to aid in the selection of the play. They are: George Herman, William Heffner, Cyril Keller, Maurice Mackey and Francis Gallagher. Casting will be completed and rehearsals will get under way the end of this month.

A one act play entitled "The Name Is Johnston" has been cast. Bob Custer is directing the show and is currently holding rehearsals.

Describing the history of the painting, Mr. Morris wrote:

"A certain Mr. Jumel lived here in New York, and to him was consigned a quantity of valuable possessions belonging to Napoleon I. It seems that there was some plan to effect his escape to this country. Soon after Napoleon's death, Mr. Jumel died and his wife sold all his belongings at auction, including the items that were held in trust. At this sale my Grandfather bought the painting that you now have. We have never been able to find out who painted it, but it was a painter of great skill. My theory has always been that it was stolen from some private chapel, for in the corner you will notice a family crest . . . I shall always be glad that the portrait is in the hands of your Order. That is where it should be."

The painting was presented through Mr. W. F. Davidson of the M. Knoedler Art Galleries in New York City.

Tentative Plan To Move Cafe Is Announced

The Loyola College Cafeteria may be moved to new and larger quarters if plans and appropriations now in the tentative stage reach culmination.

According to the Rev. Robert Arthur, S. J., Dean of Discipline, the present cafeteria is much too small to handle the huge influx of veterans. With a capacity of 250 including the Oak and Acorn rooms, the Library Building Diner daily furnishes elbow room to nearly eight hundred students, three-fourths of whom are veterans.

The new location would be along the lower road, where three other buildings are now in the process of erection. It would have twice the capacity of the present cafeteria.

The entire project depends on the success of the Mead Bill now before Congress, which would provide a twenty-five million dollar grant for increased facilities for veterans in colleges throughout the country.

Father Arthur stresses the tentative nature of the plans. "We have asked for an appropriation, but the speed with which we get it depends on the speed with which the Mead Bill is passed. The bill probably won't go through until June, if it goes through at all."

When and if the bill is passed and the appropriation approved, the present site of the cafeteria may be turned into a smoking lounge equipped with a small soda fountain.

Lenten Devotions Begin Today In Chapel

Stations of the Cross are being held in the Student Chapel every Friday during Lent beginning at 12:30 p. m. today, it was announced by the Rev. Thomas J. Higgins, S. J., Student Counselor of Loyola College.

Beginning on March 3, Rosary Devotions will be held every Monday at 12:30. Both devotions are under the auspices of the Sodality.

During Lent the Junior Sodality will attend 8 a. m. Mass every Thursday in a body. The Senior Sodality will continue to hold its meetings at 12:50 p. m. on Wednesday.

HOLLY'S

for

Cocktails

3333 Greenmount Ave.

"You Feed 'em . . .
We Seat 'em"

CHAIR EXCHANGE

121 N. Greene St.
Saratoga 6102

We Rent
TABLES and CHAIRS
for all occasions
HOSPITAL BEDS
INVALID CHAIRS

JOHN B. JAECKLEIN
Manager
Chair Exchange

"THRIFT IS WISE SPENDING"
Learn About Thrift
by shopping at

SEARS

SEARS ROEBUCK & CO.
North Avenue & Harford Rd.

A. H. FETTING CO.

Manufacturing Jewelers

314 North Charles Street
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Producers of Loyola
College Rings

MARTIN J. BARRY

When you stop we start

SA. 4180

It Takes A Lot of Knowing —

to understand what young men like in wearing apparel, and (equally important) what they wish to avoid.

We believe we have some of that understanding because so many young men come to us for clothes and furnishings.

Jos. Schloss & Son
14 N. CHARLES STREET

Open Thursday Evening